The 79th Annual Conference of the Retired Teachers' Association Northern Ireland which was scheduled to take place at 11.00am on Wednesday, 13th October 2021 in the Glenavon House Hotel, Cookstown, has regrettably been cancelled due to the on-going uncertainty surrounding the Coronavirus situation.

We know that you will be disappointed at not being able to meet our guest speaker, retired Principal, author and well-known broadcaster Bryan Gallagher, the President of UTU, the Chair of the Northern Committee INTO, Sandra E. Douglas NEU and representatives from NASUWT as well as availing of promotions from our sponsors, Cornmarket Insurance for Teachers and Platinum Financial Planning Ltd. and the opportunity to view photographs of the event in the November edition of The Ulster Tatler. Not forgetting our generously subsidised lunch.

We all pray and live in hope that this deadly virus will soon be overcome completely, and that we will be able to meet up again soon in safer surroundings.

Once the situation eases and we feel that it is absolutely safe to organise events, we will be more than happy to do so.

In the meantime, we hope that you will all keep well and keep safe.
We will, of-course, keep you informed of any future developments.
